November County Council Meeting

The next county council meeting is scheduled for November 13, 2012 at 7:00 pm. The November is already looking very exciting as the County 4-H office is asking that each person who attends the meeting bring a food item to donate to New Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

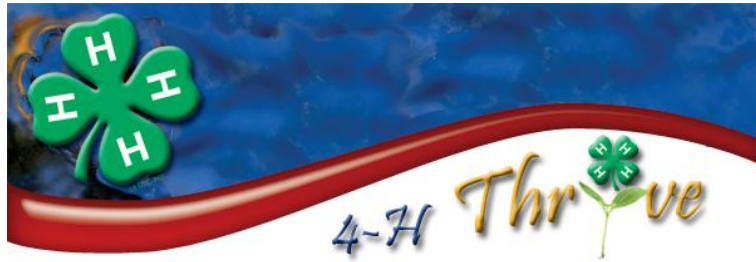

The church is assembling 320 food baskets for families in San Bernardino. All members who donate a food item will be able to take credit in their record books. The food items needed are: boxes of mac n cheese and stuffing, along with cans of green beans and yams.

There will also be a representative from the San Bernardino County Fair at the November meeting to share information regarding the still exhibits.

Having trouble getting to the County Council Meetings?

San Bernardino County 4-H will be testing a pilot project of broadcasting the November County Council meeting online. This is an exciting option for meeting attendance which if successful the county may continue. If you would like to participate in the meeting online click on the following link and join in <http://www.anymeeting.com/sbcfourhcouncil1>

Thrive Training

Do you want your youth members to thrive? Attend the Thrive Leader Training on November 26, 2012 from 7:00pm - 8:30pm at the 4-H office in Moreno Valley to start your youth on the path to thriving.

If you have a Leadership Development project, this training will show you how to use the iThrive/iChampion curriculum in your leadership project. If you lead a project and have Junior and Teen Leaders, Thrive will help you help your youth leaders.

You must complete a 45 minute virtual training before you attend this meeting. Please go here to complete the 45 minute training: http://stream.ucanr.org/4h_FTP/Foundations/

Don't forget to take the quiz or you will not get credit for completing this.

Please email Stephanie Barrett at mom4a2g@yahoo.com to register for the November 26th Thrive Training. We will need a count of attendees so that all of the materials will be ready. And snacks will be served!

The training for Thrive consists of a 45 minute online training and a 1.5 live training. This training introduces the Thrive program and walks project leaders through the iThrive Member Guide. The iThrive Member Guide is to be used in eight to nine Leadership Development project meetings. If you struggle with what to do in your project meetings, iThrive is for you! If you are interested in providing your club's youth with the skills to meet their full potential, please contact Stephanie Barrett so you can participate in Thrive Training. For more information on Thrive, go to <http://www.ca4h.org/About/Thrive/>
